Soon Using New Lights

Wrangell will soon be using the new system of electric lights according to information given out by Manager Palmer of the Electric Light Company in an interview yesterday.

The Company have all their apparatus installed in the new engine room and both engines were tried out yesterday and proved very satisfactory. The line crew have most of the new lines up and it is expected that the street lights tonight will be of the new system and then they will be put to installing the new system in the houses which is expected to take the most of two weeks and at the end of that time Wrangell will be enjoying the best Electric Light system of any town of its size in Alaska.

Hard Time Dance Thanksgiving Eve

Manager Bender of the Wrangell Photoshow is making great preparations for a Hard Time Dance at that popular place on Thanksgiving Eve. Prizes will be given to the worst dressed men and women and everyone is assured a great time so don't forget the time the place and the date.

Coulter Starts Buying Fresh Fish

C. M. Coulter made the announcement the first of the week that he was in the market to buy all fresh salmon caught and as a result many of the fishermen of the port have left in search of the elusive finny tribes.

J. J. McTague Is Improving

Mrs. J. J. McTague was in receipt of very cheering word on the last mail from Mr. McTague to the effect that his sight is improving and at present is able to distinguish objects very slightly. Mr. McTague is at present in New York under the care of a prominent doctor and much hope is given that the sight of one eye at least may be restored.

Halibut Schooner Has Broken Shaft

The big halibut schooner Athena came into port last week under sails having a broken shaft which made her engines useless. The boat will lay here until a new shaft can be shipped up from Seattle and installed.

Wrangell Visited By Bad Storm

Wrangell was visited by one of the worst storms last Sunday that has hit this port for several years. The storm started about two o'clock in the morning following a slight earthquake, and from then on a strong southeaster was blowing until late in the afternoon. Considerable damage was done by the big wind and sea along the waterfront, several gas boats being driven on the shore and smashed more or less. Several shacks in the lower part of town were blown down and other damage done. Considerable excitement was caused about eleven o'clock in the morning by the fire whistle blowing but it turned out to be a false alarm caused by the wind blowing a stick against the whistle cord causing the whistle to blow. Most of the lumber piles in the saw mill yard are down as a result of the blow. The wind died down after high tide and things were soon back in their normal condition.

Uncle Dan On Winter Schedule

The present trip is the last of the weekly schedule of the Uncle Dan, for the rest of the winter she will make but two trips a month.

Dr. Dawes Gets Farewell

Wrangell paid one of the highest tributes that has ever been tendered a departing citizen last Friday night when practically the whole town met at Red Men's Hall and tendered a farewell reception to Dr. Dawes.

The evening was a series of surprises for Dr. Dawes. First it being Moose Lodge night and Dr. Dawes being the local Dictator, Mr. Fred Johnston on behalf of the lodge made a very able speech, at the close of which he presented Dr. Dawes with a very fine traveling bag as a token of the appreciation of the lodge for his interest and work in behalf of the Moose. While the lodge was in session the many friends of Dr. Dawes who are not members of the Moose and the ladies gathered in the big dining room adjoining the lodge room and at the close of the session the doors were thrown open and everybody joined in the surprise and welcome to Dr. Dawes. The first of the evening was spent in playing whist at which Mrs. Walsh and Mr. McCormack were winners of the first prizes and Mr. Johnson and Miss LaBounty the consolation prizes. After the cards were over Mr. P. C. McCormack in a few well chosen words spoke of the regrets of the people of Wrangell at losing Dr. Dawes and for those present wished him the highest of success where ever he may be located in the future. Dr. Dawes replied with a few words in which he stated that the reception tendered him had made a lasting impression and in closing extended an invitation to any Wrangellite to visit him at any time they happen to be near his future home. After the addresses the party joined in singing "Aloha" after which they went to a bounteous luncheon served by the ladies and from there to the dance hall below where until the wee hours of the morning the crowd danced to the excellent music of the Moose Orchestra.

The affair was a decided surprise to Dr. Dawes who did not have an inkling of what was going on until it was sprung on him at the lodge room. And the best wishes of the community go with him to his future home.

Fred Johnson Opens Repair Shop

Another new business place was added to Wrangell's list during the past two weeks when Fred Johnson opened his new watch repairing shop in the Pioneer Building. Fred is an expert when it comes to fixing watches and is assured a good patronage along that line.

A herd of seven reindeer have been sent to Metlakatla by the Government as an experiment to see if they cannot be successfully raised in Southeastern Alaska.

Great Picture Coming to Rink

It would require a second Solomon to decide what is the most attractive and popular feature of George Kleine's artistic production of the Cines photo-drama "Quo Vadis" which is now exciting the admiration of the world. Some spectators enjoy most, the spectacular scenes of the Arena with its ferocious lions, exciting gladiator combats and chariot races, to say nothing of Ursus' thrilling conquest of the savage bull, while others prefer the romantic love story of Vinitius and Lygia which is so completely related. Some admire the characteristic scenes of Nero's court with its brilliant pageantry, magnificent festivals and reproduction of Roman palaces and gardens, and a great many applaud the production for its deep moral and religious note, the impressive visualization of the early struggles of Christianity and inspiring scenes in which the Savior and the Apostles Peter and Paul dominate. Altogether it is a supreme masterpiece and the one word that fittingly describes it is "marvelous". George Kleine's "Quo Vadis" is coming to the Rink. Watch for the posters.

George Bradley, a native boy, was judged insane by a jury before Judge Thomas at the court house last Tuesday afternoon.

City Fathers Give New Lights

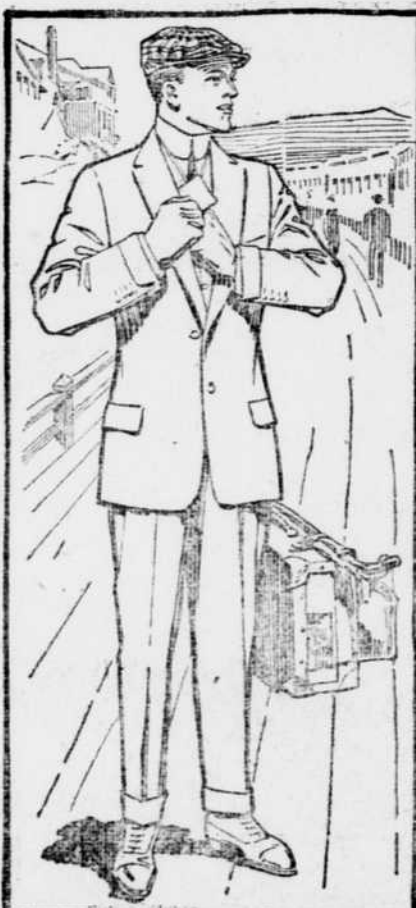

The City Fathers met in regular session at the Council Chambers last Thursday evening. All councilmen were present except Mayor Emery who is out of town. The first business taken up by the Council was the reading of a petition from the residents along Cassiar Street asking for the city to place a street light at or near the steps leading to the Edwin Hofstad residence. After being thoroughly discussed the Council moved that a light be placed there. The Water Committee reported that the work on the dam was progressing in fine shape and that this month would probably see the new dam up at least two feet above the pipe outlet in the old dam. After passing on the claims against the city the Council adjourned.

Body On Way To West Coast

The body of Philip Darrow arrived up on the Northwestern last week and will be taken over to Shakan for burial on the next trip of the Uncle Dan. Philip Darrow is a native boy about twenty years of age who passed away at the Cushman School near Tacoma. The body is being accompanied to his former home by Joe Dammart.

A Helpmeet.

She is such a help to her clever husband. Everybody knows that he is a genius, but few are next to the fact that his little wife aids him in his every activity. We got a look-in at this state of affairs at the surprise party we gave him the other night.

When the food had been discussed he was called upon for a speech, of course. He arose from his seat beside his wife, he hemmed and hawed, and then he said:

"Ladies and gentlemen, I am totally unprepared, of course, and—er—being, as I said, totally unprepared, you must—er—excuse me for being—er—unprepared. I—er—ah—I was hardly prepared for this—er"—And then his wife interrupted:

"Why, darling," she said, "you knew it perfectly this morning. The next sentence begins, 'Knowing as I do—Now you can go on from there.'"

What helps they are, these anxious wives of ours!—Cleveland Plain Dealer

A Ticklish Customer.

The Dublin farvey or car driver is rich in wit and repartee. Here is a story of a characteristic member of that characteristic tribe. A gentleman new to Ireland wished to hire a car. The first driver who offered himself was "dressed" in a horrible assortment of rags and was indignantly rejected by the hirer. Finding a smarter coachman, the gentleman pointed to the ragged one and asked how a person thus attired could be allowed on the public streets. He was told that the man could not help it and inquired whether he was so poor. "Och, no, yer honor," was the smiling answer. "But, with, there's not a tailor in all Dublin puts a measuring tape to him—his so ticklish."

EDITORIAL PAGE

The observance of a day of thanksgiving by the American people this year is fraught with the greatest significance and is of larger moment than any similar observance in the preceding half century, or since the close of our great Civil War. Our country is at peace with all nations, while all of the other great powers of the world are engaged in the most terrible war of all history. Peace reigns with us and our republic lives as the most striking example in the history of nations of the beneficence of democracy and the rule of the people. It is therefore peculiarly fitting that we approach this Nation's day of thanksgiving with solemnity and praise; and in accordance with the recognition of the day by the President of the United States, I, J. F. A. STRONG, Governor of the Territory of Alaska, do appoint Thursday, the twenty-sixth day of November, nineteen hundred and fourteen, a day of

THANKSGIVING

And I recommend that on that day the people of Alaska do refrain as far as may be from labor and unite in returning thanks to the Giver of all good for the blessings bestowed and the favors received at His hands; as a people we have been greatly blessed during the past year; the principles of justice and equity have been exemplified in the nation; the earth has yielded bountiful crops; war, famine, and pestilence have been unknown; our country has set an example to all the other nations of the world in following the paths of peace, which make for prosperity and happiness and the spirit of righteousness among all peoples. Let us, then, return thanks for a free country and a progressive nation, whose affairs have been so wisely administered as to commend it to all those who love the right and believe in the ultimate reign of the universal brotherhood of man and the coming of a time, a blessed time, a time that shall last forever, when nation shall not lift up itself against nation, neither shall they learn war any more. And while giving thanks for the blessings we enjoy, let us not be unmindful of those upon whom war's dread horrors are falling with such awful force and consequence, and invoke the help of Almighty God to the end that peace and prosperity may speedily prevail among all the peoples of the earth.

Given under my hand and the Seal of Alaska, in Juneau, the Capital, this thirty-first day of October, in the year of Our Lord, one thousand, nine hundred and fourteen, and of the Independence of the United States the one hundred and thirty-ninth.

A good show at the Wrangell Photoshow tonight.

Fred Leonard is at the Bell Isl. and hot springs for his health.

"Bill" Jones, the fellow who dug Wrangell Narrows, was a passenger south on the Alki.

Louis Lyro and L. Nelson were in from the West Coast last Saturday.

Robert Scott, the veteran of the traveling men, was a Wrangell caller this week.

Don't forget the Church Bazaar to be given by the Ladies Guild of St. Philips Church the first week in December.

Fred Wigg has a crew out after wood logs with the intention of starting up his wood yard as soon as he returns.

Father Kern is expected in Wrangell this week and will hold services at the Catholic Church at the usual hours next Sunday. All are invited.

Judge Gunnison was a through passenger on the Northwestern last Saturday for his home in Juneau. Judge Gunnison is returning from an extended trip east.

Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Grant and Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Leonard were passengers on the City of Seattle for Juneau. They expect to return on the same boat.

A very enjoyable Saturday evening dance was given at the Wrangell Photoshow last Saturday evening after the show. A good crowd attended and all report a good time.

Fred Willson, manager of the saw mill, is a passenger south on the Alki on a business trip to Seattle. It is rumored around that Fred's business in the States is of a matrimonial nature.

Manager Lewis, of the Rink Theater, is improving that popular picture house this week by adding an addition on to the balcony thereby getting a larger seating capacity and making the place look much more artistic.

Dr. Dawes and J. H. Wheeler were passengers on the Alki last Saturday night for Juneau. After getting his office located in the capital city Dr. Dawes will return here and then leave on an extended trip east.

Mr. P. C. McCormack of the St. Michael Trading Co. is certainly there when it comes to getting new advertising stunts to sell his goods, during the past week he installed a fine looking mission clock for no other purpose than to sell handkerchiefs.

Mr. F. Matheson of the Matheson Department Store accompanied by Mrs. Matheson were passengers south on the last Princess boat bound for Seattle on a short business trip. Mr. Matheson is a great booster for Alaska and Wrangell in particular and will sure put in some good words for us here whenever the chance arises.

Well Known Knight Of Grip Marries

A wedding ceremony was solemnized on the night of October 29th in which Dave Terwillinger and Mrs. May Brotherton were united in the holy bonds of matrimony. The ceremony was performed by J. B. Marshall. The bride is very well known in Juneau, having been connected with the Orpheum Theatre and hotel ever since the house has been opened. Dave Terwillinger is one of the best known traveling men in Alaska, having been in Juneau for the past ten years. He was connected with the internal revenue department for a period of eight years and has been traveling with Juneau as his headquarters ever since.—Ketchikan Miner.

Notice To Parents

Children have been seen coming in contact with electric light wires, either by throwing ropes across, or reaching with sticks and poles.

Under our new system the main line will be a high and dangerous voltage, therefore instruct your children to leave the wires alone in every way before some accident befalls them.

NOTICE OF HEARING ON FINAL ACCOUNT AND PETITION FOR ADMINISTRATRIX'S FINAL SETTLEMENT.

In the Probate Court for the Territory of Alaska, Division Number One, Wrangell Commissioner's Precinct.

In the matter of the Estate of THOMAS A. WILLSON, Deceased.

Notice is hereby given that I, Mary A. Willson, as Administratrix of the Estate of Thomas A. Willson, deceased, have this day rendered and presented for final settlement, and file in this Court my Final Account of my administration of said Estate, and my petition for the distribution of the residue of said Estate to the persons entitled thereto, and that the above entitled Court has by order appointed the 7th day of December 1914, at 10 o'clock in the forenoon, and the Court Room of the United States Commissioner at Wrangell in the Territory, Division and Precinct aforesaid as the time and place for the hearing on the application for the allowances and the final and judicial settlement of said Final Account, and for the approval of my acts and proceedings as Administratrix herein; and that said Court has appointed the said time and place for the hearing upon said petition for final distribution and settlement; that all persons interested in said estate are hereby notified to then and there appear and show cause, if any they have, why the said Final Account and all my acts and proceedings as Administratrix as aforesaid should not be approved and allowed and settled, and why said petition should not be granted as prayed.

Dated at Baltimore, Maryland, this 18th day of September 1914:
MARY A. WILLSON,
Administratrix of the Estate of Thomas A. Willson, Deceased.

Ragamuffin.
"Ragamuffin," says Dr. Johnson, "is from 'rag' and I know not what else." According to Dr. Brewer, the word means a ragged "muff" or "muffin" (a spiritless fellow). But the original Ragamuffin seems to have been a demon in certain old mystery plays, whose name was probably just high sounding nonsense. It is curious, however, that "the ragman" is an old name for the devil.

Korean Etiquette.
When a Korean meets his wife on the street he must by custom ignore her presence and pass her by as if she were a stranger.

Holland's Caraway Seed.
Caraway seed is a staple crop in Holland. The number of acres devoted to this fragrant seed is 20,000. The yield of baled caraway is about a ton and a half to the acre. Most of the seeds are worked up into oil by distillation.

Agujardi's Voice.
The record soprano voice was Lucreeza Agujardi's. This lady, who died in 1783, could easily strike C in altissimo.

Chinese Pirates.
As long ago as the thirteenth century the island of Hongkong was a piratical stronghold, and for centuries the Chinese government was unable to drive the sea robbers out. All craft passing what is now Hongkong harbor were compelled to pay tribute. The higher elevations of the island served as lookout stations, and no boat that approached was permitted to leave until it had paid toll.

Those Girls.
Her appetite gave me a shiver.
It certainly was good.
She started in on deviled ham
And then ate angel food.
—Cincinnati Enquirer.

She was the jolliest of girls
And always cutting capers—
In fact, she would put up her curls
Each night in comic papers.
—Cincinnati Enquirer.

Equal to the Occasion.
"Didn't I see you holding my daughter's hand in the parlor last night?" exclaimed the irate father.
"Y-y-yes, sir," stammered the youth.
"I read in the paper the other day that the wrist contains eight bones, the palm five and the fingers fourteen, and I was anxious to confirm the statement, sir." —Yonkers Stagerman.

take effect not later than Feb. 1st.

Hans Walby, an old time Nome-ite, has just taken up a 320 acre homestead in the Matanuska valley.
Mr. Walby will start in immediately clearing up the land and building a cabin on his property.

The record high water price for sockeye salmon of 40 cents each was paid by many Fraser river canneries on Sept. 9, and those fisherman who were lucky enough to catch any made a good thing out of it.

Messrs. Bullock and Houston, recently convicted of fraud in supplying coal to the government at Nome, and now out on bail pending an appeal, are in Washington,
D. C., trying to obtain pardons.
The department of justice is said to favor clemency.

Order.

Order is the ability of the mind, the health of the body, the peace of the city, the security of the state. As the beams to a house, as the bones to the microcosm of man, so is order to all things.—Southey.

How She Felt.

Mrs. Black—Sam Johnson done left his wife 'bout six month's ago.
Mr. Black—Do she think he am nebbah comin' back?
"Waal, she jest beginnin' to hab hopes."

No More Ashes to Clean

The biggest economizer ever invenued. We have just reserved the rights for the Ashlock Hidro Carbon burner that will save you work and fuel a specialty. A kettle of hot water in less than ten minutes, and it will only cost you from five to ten cents per day for oil. A great convenience for the fisherman, no wood to cut and no trouble to build a fire. Come in and take a look at them, now on exhibition at the
